

Subtitle Search

The Planet eStream Subtitle Search tool allows users to be able to search for content based on their subtitles. You can either find content based on a specific topic or locate the part of a video where these subtitles occur.

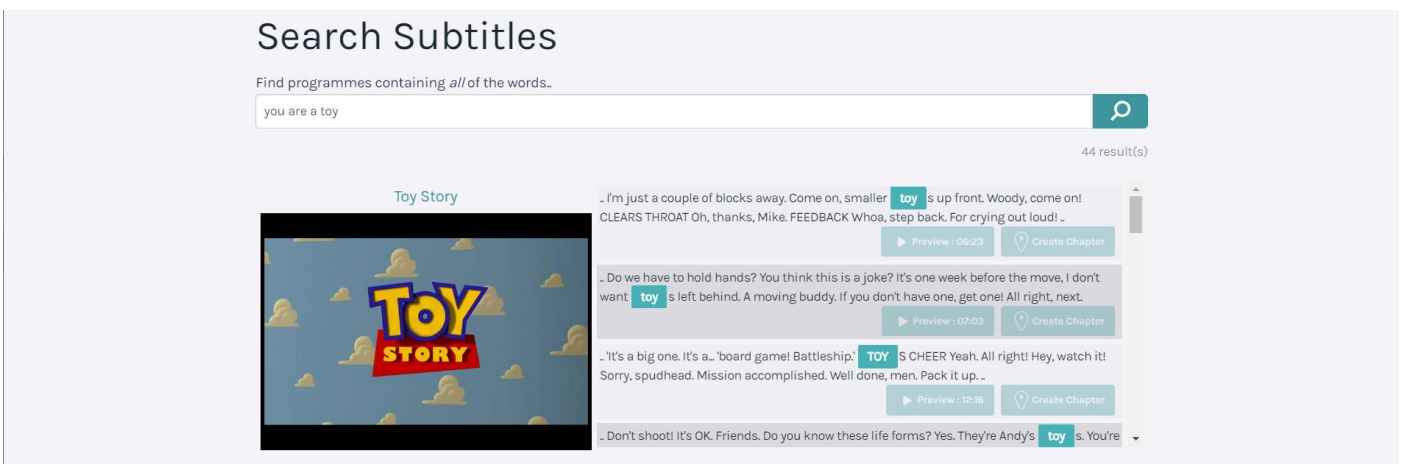

Step One – Accessing the Subtitle Search Function.

To locate the subtitle search tool, click on Tools and then click on Subtitle Search:

Step Two – Using the Subtitle Search Tool

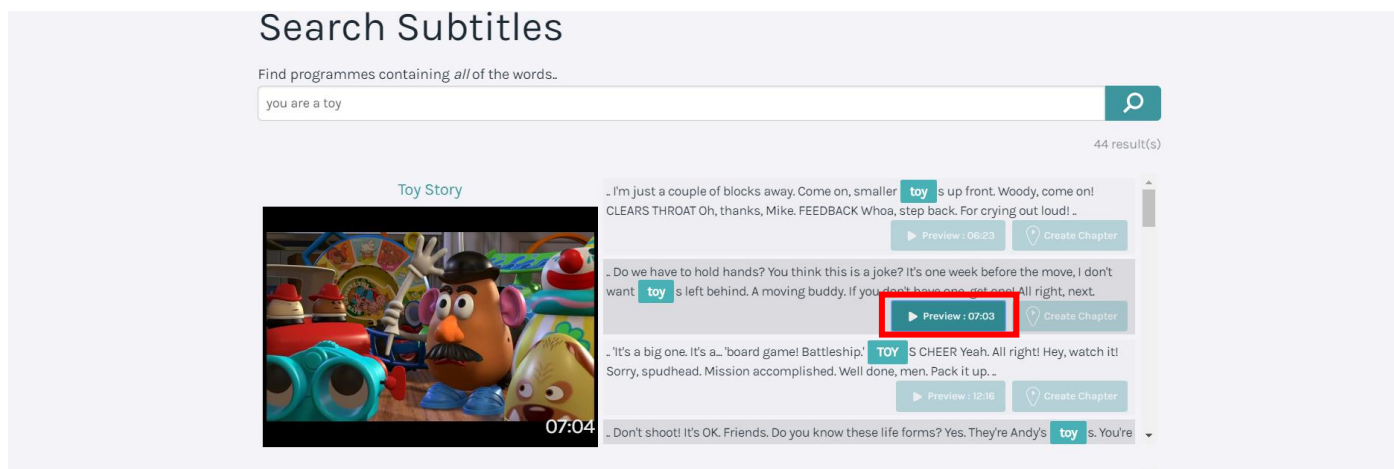

To begin searching for subtitles, type any keywords, quotes or subjects into the search bar. This will display results where that term is located within any subtitles from content on your eStream site.

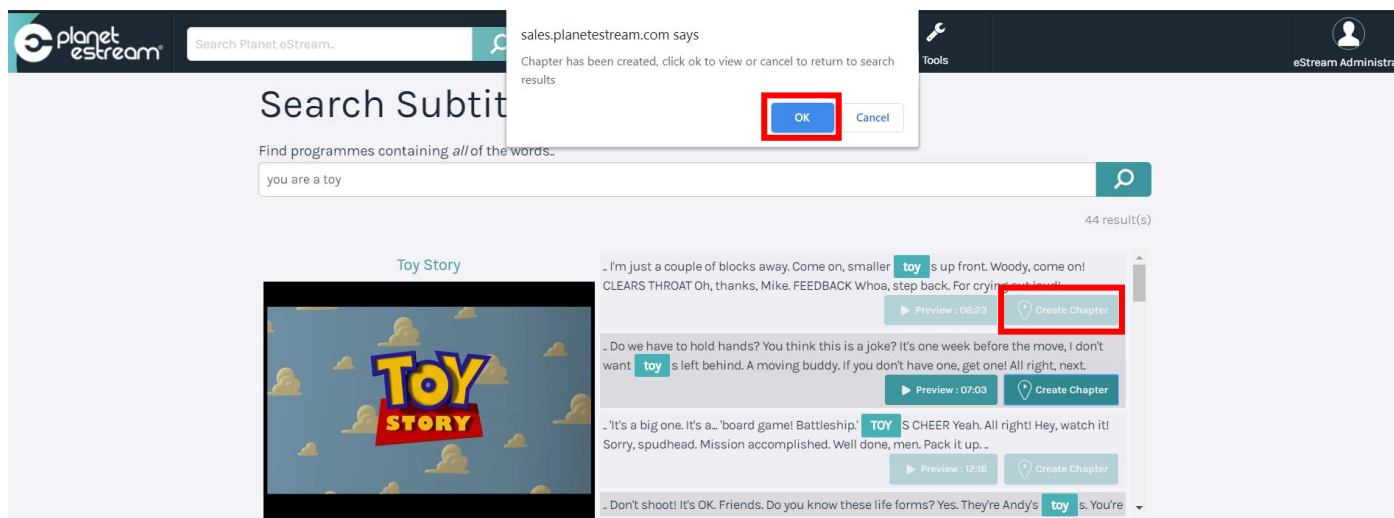

Step Three – Previewing and Creating Chapters

Once you are presented with the search results, you will notice two buttons. One is for previewing the item at the point in the video that these subtitles relate to. It will show the entire sentence for your reference.

Select the preview option to view this specific part of the video and ensure it is useful for your requirements.

The other button that is located next to the preview button is for creating a chapter from this section of video. Click create chapter which will create a default minute long chapter for this section of video.

Once the chapter has been created it will appear on the Chapters of the video. You can modify the thumbnail and chapter duration by selecting the pencil icon.
